VITAL FEATURES

MAD TRADING STAMPS 6

MAD makes like them big supermarkets this issue, offers trading stamps so you can save for prizes. Only next issue we quit!

OUTDOORS WITH DON MARTIN 11

With summer almost here, Don Martin takes you all "Outdoors" with a trilogy of tales well-calculated to drive you back inside!

ECHH, TEEN-AGE SON OF THING ... 13

Hollywood's latest trend seems to be those teen-age monsters, so here is MAD's own version of the worst of these "horrors."

STRANGELY BELIEVE IT 19

Once again, Ernie Kovacs graces the pages of MAD with his oddities. To us, why he continues is the biggest oddity of 'em all.

PRAVDA 24

We've all heard of this famous Russian newspaper, but few of us have seen it. Now MAD translates a copy. So keep looking!

THE COLD CEREAL WAR 30

Next time you hear that snap, crackle, and pop, you'll know just what's going on, thanks to this report by Bob and Ray.

FUTURE "OF-THE-MONTH" CLUBS .. 35

Every time you pick up a magazine, you see another "of-the-month" club ad. Here are a few we'd like to see, just for a change!

WHAT IT WAS, WAS FOOTBALL 44

With the baseball season in full swing, it's only fitting that MAD print Andy Griffith's impressions of a football game.

MAD PARTY GAMES

I want to thank you for publishing those great "MAD Party Games." Our crowd was getting pretty fed-up with such old-fashioned drags as "Hara-Kiri," "Russian Roulette," and "Chug-A-Lug"! At our last party, we played "Inferiority Complex" and it was a gasser. Edwin must have been an awful poor sport. Our subject took it great. He didn't shoot himself at all. He shot all the guests!

Phyllis Altman
Los Angeles, Calif.

POPULARITY POLL

I recently held a poll in the private school I attend for the "most popular magazine," and I thought you would like to know that out of 110 kids, 53 picked MAD first!

Bill Mattes
Briarcliff Manor, N. Y.

Well, you can't fool all of the people all of the time! — Ed.

WINDSHIELD STICKERS

My deepest thanks for printing the Mad Windshield Stickers on the back of your mag. They solved my parking problem completely!

Craig Zahnow
Cell Block 23
San Quentin

HEARTY APPROVAL

This might be of some interest to adults working with teen-agers. Your magazine is a great hit among the Junior and Senior High School students here in Stockton. As a parent, I heartily approve of MAD because of the excellent humor and clever articles. Also, as a parent, I approve of the absence of any material featuring distorted ideas on sex. I have heard many teachers comment on this too.

Mrs. Robert E. Condit
Stockton, Calif.

HOMECOMING DISPLAY

This picture was taken at our Homecoming game. The display, in full color, covered the front of Cortner Hall, and took over two days to produce. The men of Cortner hope it rates a space in your fine magazine.

Kenneth N. Barnes
University of Redlands

CRAZY DATES

Why is the "Special APRIL FOOL Issue" dated May, and on sale in March? Hah?

Bob Donald
Palo Alto, Calif.

We have received many letters asking us why MAD is dated so far ahead of the month it goes on-sale, so we'll try to explain: You see, a magazine is usually dated to indicate when the following issue is coming on-sale so the retailer can take the previous issue off-sale. This issue of MAD, which went on-sale in May, is therefore dated July because MAD is a bi-monthly and the dealers will know to take the issue on-sale in May off-sale in July in time for the on-sale of the September issue! If you understand this, then now explain it to us, 'cause we still don't! — Ed.

WE'RE RUNNING OUT!

Yes, we're running out to lunch now, gang! But before we go, we'd just like to remind you all that "WHAT—ME WORRY" kid reproductions in full color are still available. MAD T-SHIRTS

I really did go to a plush New York night club in my Mad T-Shirt! And they didn't throw me out! But I had a hard time convincing them that they couldn't fire me because I was never hired . . . to mop the floors!

Eric Shtob
Brooklyn, N. Y.

I did more than dream, I actually did go to a New York night club in my Mad T-Shirt. Now, I too wear a black eye-patch like the guy in the picture! Them bouncers sure pack a wallop!

Leon Harvey
Old Westbury, L. I.

Why can't girls have Mad T-Shirts?

Macy McFarland
San Jose, Calif.

See inside back cover. Macy! — Ed.

Who's the fellow modeling the Mad T-Shirt in your May issue? I bet he's real cute without the moustache and eye-patch. Do you have any pictures of him without them?

Jeanne Brauns
Centereach, S. I.

Who Is He?

You're right, Jeanne. He is real cute. It's staff-member Jerry De Fuccio, and here's a picture of him without the moustache. He grew it the year after this picture was taken. — Ed.

Without Moustache?

"LITTLE MEN by Barbara Hutton

SAT. EVE. PEST

In "Tugboat Annie Sinks" in your Sat. Eve. Pest article, we noticed that Annie is wearing an ND sweater. Could Annie really be the great Don Miller of the famous Four Horsemen—incognito? Don, if you need a job, don't hestitate to contact us!

Jim Crowley
Harry Stuhldreher
Elmer Layden
Notre Dame, Ind.

I have seen some stupid, shocking, ridiculous and dopey things in MAD, but the cover of The Sat. Eve. Pest takes the cake! There are no napkins on the table! Clods!

Andrew Weissman
New York City

In "Keeping Pested," you claim that the picture of Eugene Ogg was snapped from the mouth of his cave, when it clearly shows the mouth of his cave behind him!

Bill and Bob Ewald
Des Moines, Iowa

Mouth Of Cave?

Picture was actually taken from mouth of Eugene Ogg's cave. What you see behind him is mouth of Irving Ugg's cave. Irving left the lights on inside! — Ed.

WRONG TOTAL

In "Why I Changed My Job," who's the boob who thinks that $100 less $44.20 leaves $55.90. Actually, it leaves $55.80. Somebody ought to tell Mr. Yinckley about this!

Jon J. Alexiou
Mission, Kansas

Somebody ought to tell the MAD staff about this, too! Our accountant supplied us with the figures! — Ed.

WHA . . .?

One thing I think is terrific are the comments, or whatever-you-call-them, scattered throughout the magazine. Every issue, without fail, you come up with gems. I always look forward to these little . . . whatever-you-call-them!

Ercelia Kersane
Bronx, N. Y.

We call them "Marginal Thinking," Miss . . . whatever-you-call-yourself! — Ed.

SUBURBS

Who is "Man of Distinction" in "The Suburbs Are On Their Way Out"? He looks like my long-lost uncle, Herman Glick!

Ezell Willard, Jr.
Union, South Carolina

Long-Lost Uncle?

You're right, Ezell. He is your long-lost uncle! Herman, a true-blooded Southerner, moved 'cause he couldn't stand living in a town with a name like yours! — Ed.

ALL ABOUT MAD

The latest issue of SCENE has an article about MAD. It's on sale now, so take a look. When you do, don't look at pages 25-27 where SCENE has photos of French pin-up girls. Just concentrate on the pages about MAD. They've got reprints of some of the funniest stuff we've run. Pick up a copy of SCENE . . . laugh and laugh . . . and then put it back! We don't want MAD readers buying other magazines!—Ed.

BACK ISSUES

Since there are no back-issues of MAD available, don't you think it would be a great idea to offer your thousands and thousands of fans (who first started reading MAD since you switched to the widespread, efficient, successful distribution of Independent News Company) a special opportunity to catch up on some of the best material from those great past issues (that were handled by your smaller, more inefficient distributor)? Like maybe an annual? For 50c? Double-thick? Extra color plates? Special gimmicks inside? On sale in June?

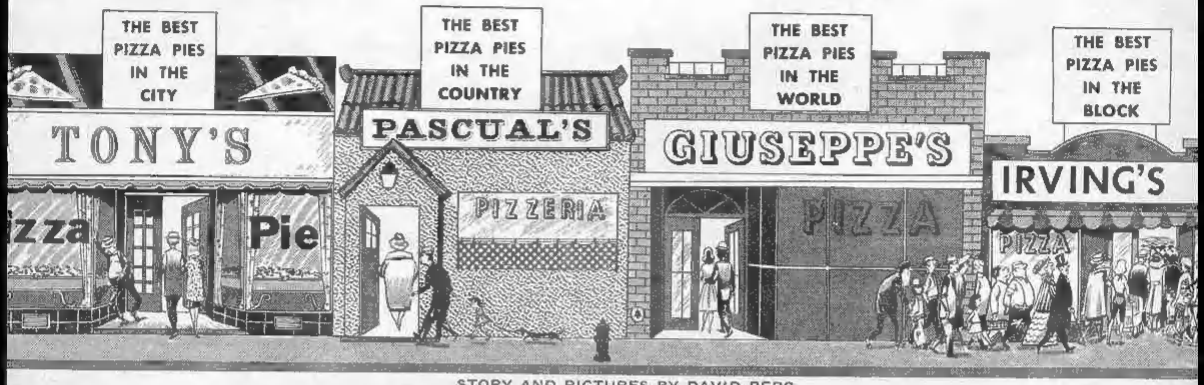
Let's face it! The Italians have built a better mouth trap. And now, the world is beating a path to the Pizzeria door. Here, then, is an article about the pie that's rapidly replacing "apple" as our National Pastry...

PIZZA PIE



STORY AND PICTURES BY DAVID BERG

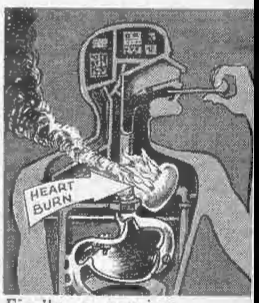
INGREDIENTS NEEDED FOR A PIZZA PIE

First, dough is needed.

Next, chef is needed... to knead the dough.

Then, Mozzarella cheese and Tomato sauce are needed... to spread on the kneaded dough.

Then, anchovies, mushrooms, peppers, sausages or onions are needed to kill the taste of the previous ingredients.

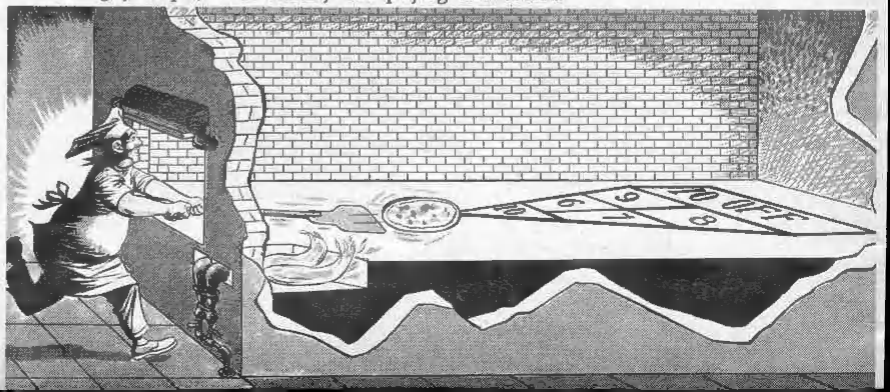


Finally, a cast-iron stomach is needed to help digest the mess.

MAKING A PIZZA PIE

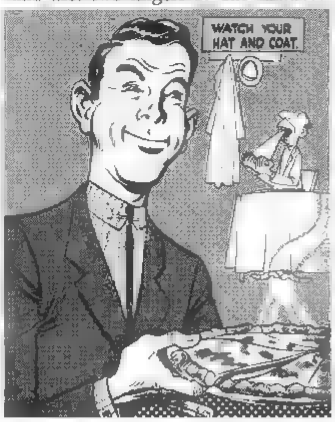
The chef then places the pie in the oven.

Next, he manipulates pizza with a big wooden paddle. You think he's baking your pie, when actually he's playing shuffleboard.



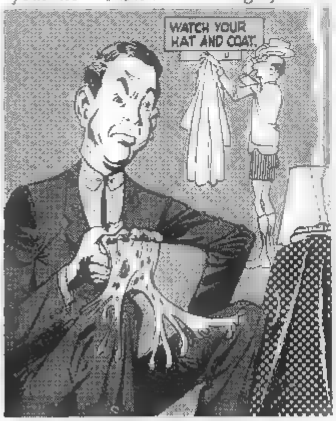
EATING A PIZZA PIE

Grasp hard crust of pizza with thumb and first two fingers of one hand...

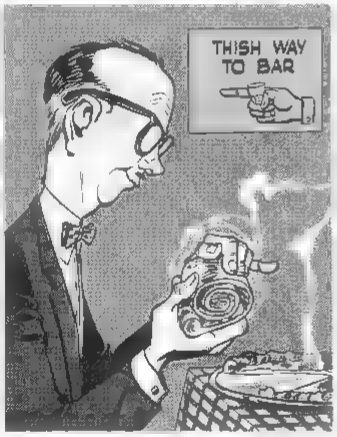


Lift section from rest of pie. With this method, section will flop over...

...getting icky sticky gook all over your new $49.50 charcoal-gray suit.

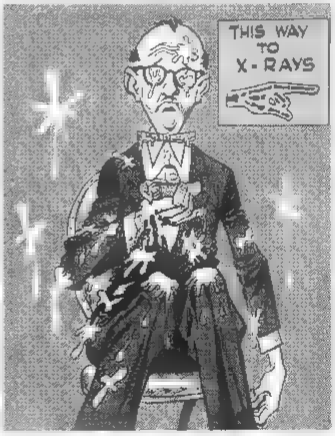


Nearly roll up pizza pie section from point to hard crust as shown above...

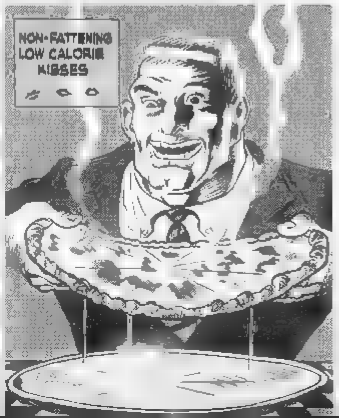


With this method, the ingredients are sure to ooze out from both sides...

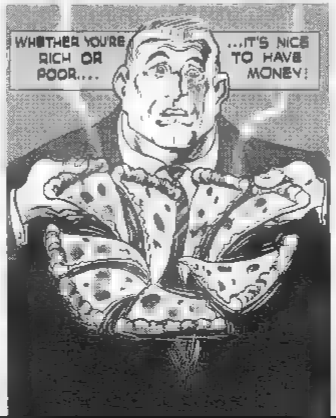
...getting icky sticky gook all over your new $49.50 charcoal-gray suit.



If you are a he-man type pizza eater, grasp whole pie firmly in both hands.



With this method, whole pie will fall apart, as it has been pre-sectioned...



...getting icky sticky gook all over your new $49.50 charcoal-gray suit.

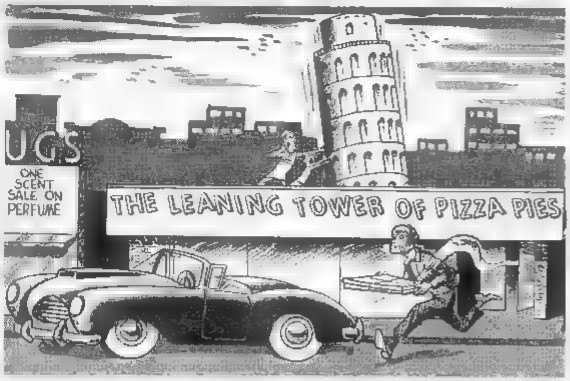
PIZZA PIE TAKE-OUT ORDERS

If your family wants to eat Pizza at home, you can always dash down to the nearest Pizzeria for a "take-out" order.



If you get caught in traffic jam on the way home, you can always set fire to the car seat to keep the Pizza pie hot.

If you get caught speeding on the way home, you can always offer piece of Pizza as bribe, known as "Cheezit, the Cop!"

If you finally get the Pizza home, and it's ice cold . . . you can always take the family out to a nice Chinese Restaurant.

NEW USES FOR PIZZA PIES

Like all fads, Pizza Pie popularity may fade. When this happens, MAD is ready to save the Pizza Pie makers with these suggested . . .

MAD REVIEWS ULTIMATE IN HORROR IN ADVANCE OF ITS FIRST SHOWING

(In fact, in advance of its being filmed!)

Yes, by George, we've done it again! You'll be seeing this picture in your neighborhood theater sooner or later! It's the logical, if not inevitable, film in the new line of hair-raising, spine-tingling, mind-rotting horror epics Hollywood's been making lately. Remember how you loved the very first classic monster pictures. Dracula, Frankenstein, The Mummy, Snow-White? Remember how you even enjoyed all the sequels . . . The Son of Frankenstein, Dracula's Daughter, Mighty Joe Young? And then remember how they discovered the Science-Fiction horrors . . . The Creature from the Black Lagoon, Them, Godzilla (a horror in any language!)? And then, how they got real horrible: Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein and Abbott and Costello Meet Dracula? Well, now they're just disgusting! . . . I Was A Teen-Age Frankenstein and I Was A Teen-Age Werewolf! The next thing you know, we'll be seeing this!

"EACH DAWN I DIE by Jack Parr

Picture opens with fifteen minutes of fog. Superimposed over it, the blurry credits move swiftly across screen. (They're really ashamed of this one!)

First shock comes when a body without one single mark on it, and without a single drop of blood in its veins is suddenly discovered . . . in the balcony!

Through the dismal grey fog, we can make out a laboratory with intricate-looking equipment. The fog suddenly clears up when audience yells "Focus!"

KIDNAPPED by Marie McDonald

We see two figures strapped to tables. One is monstrous, the other is small.

Lights flash. The equipment crackles. The huge figure twitches...then moves.

It drags heavy feet slowly across the laboratory, hesitates, picks up phone.

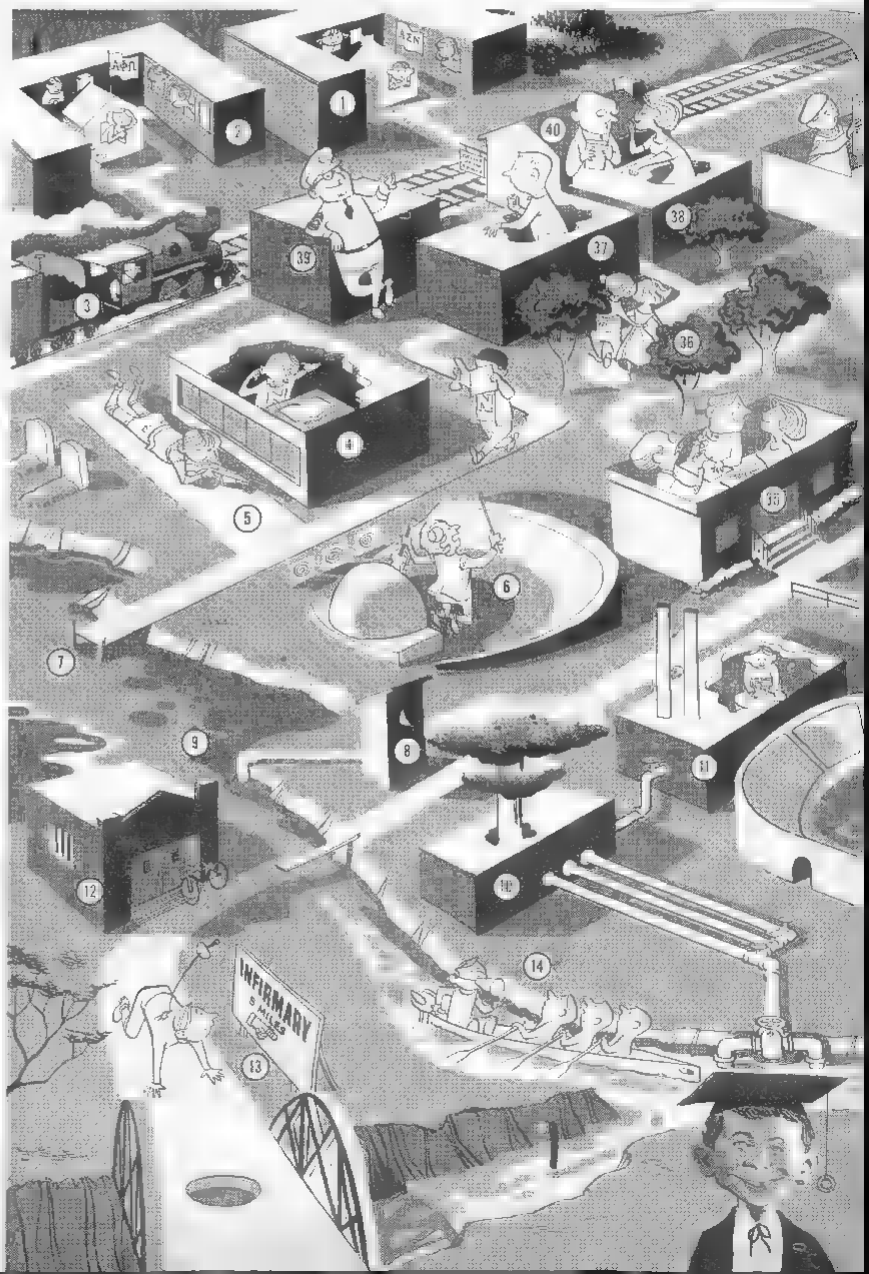
STUDENT BODIES DEPT.

MAD SOLVES COLLEGE-OVERCROWDING

ALFRED E. NEUM

Now, MAD takes a look at a national emergency... College-Overcrowding! Experts say that hundreds of colleges and universities will have to be built in the next ten years to accommodate the growing army of potential college students in Elementary and High Schools today. MAD says . . . not

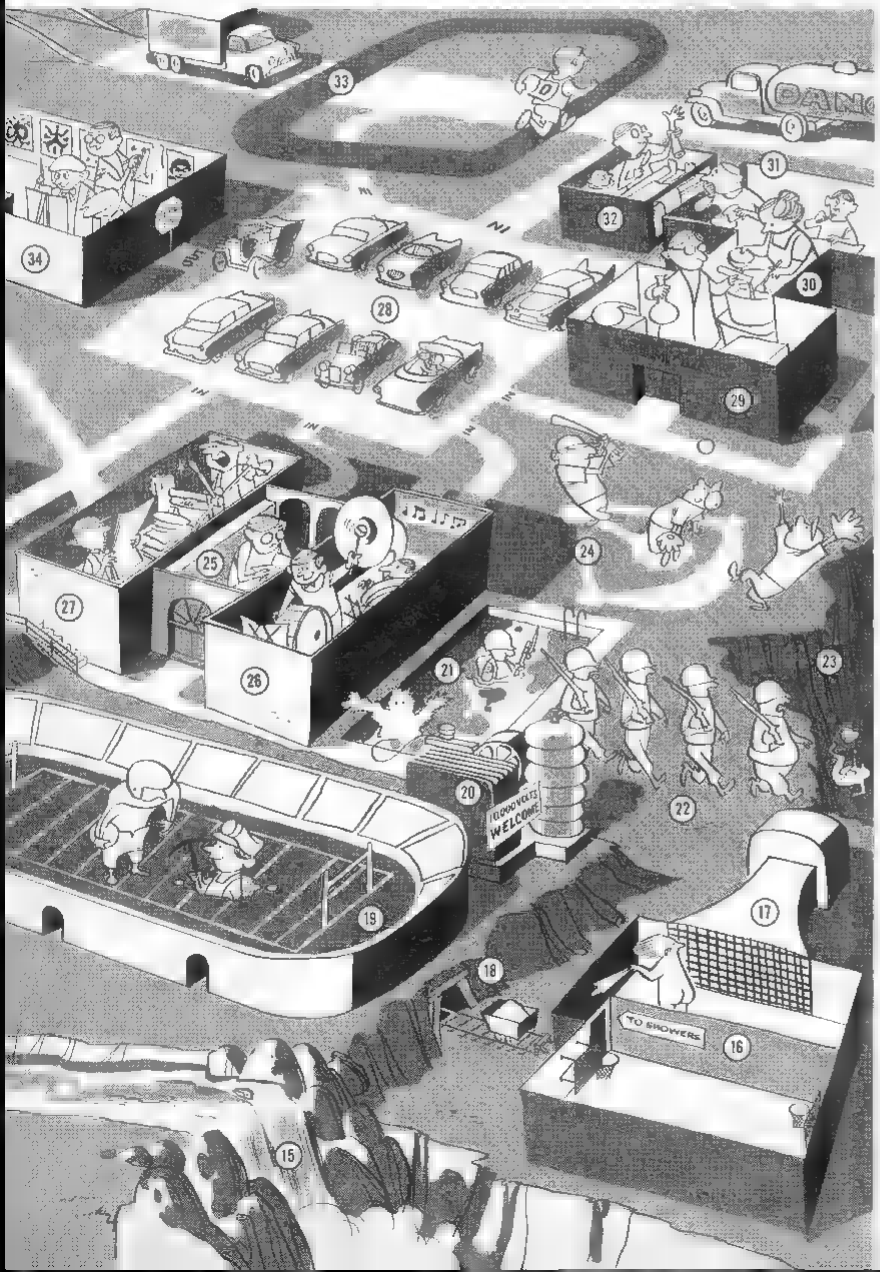
The campus of Alfred E. Neuman University has been carefully planned to include features that will eliminate its students as quickly as possible. Like: Sorority Row (1) is built around one frat house, and Fraternity Row surrounds one Sorority House (2). Right away there's a mess! Students from these areas must cross railroad tracks (3) to get to the campus. Right away, another mess! Student Study Hall (4) is located alongside of the Rifle Range (5). Ensuing noise should drive a few studious individuals nuts. The Rifle Range's Targets line up with the Outdoor Ampitheatre's Seats (6). A few wild shots, and the Music Dept. has vacancies. The Student Promenade is designed for taking long walks on short piers (7). College Cesspool (8) is located so it will drain into College Reservoir (9). Radiation Laboratory (10) supplies heavy water for College Laundry Plant (11). Law School (12) is placed at entrance to road (13) to Infirmary, deliberately located five miles away from campus, exhausting the ambulance-chasing Law Students, not to mention killing the injured ones. River for Crew Races (14) ends in Waterfalls (15).



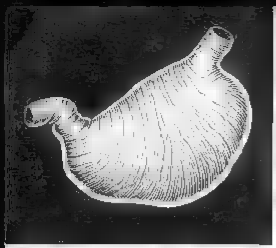
PROBLEM WITH "CAREFULLY PLANNED" AN UNIVERSITY

true! Only one or possibly two "carefully planned" colleges would have to be built to eliminate this problem as fast as it grows. "Carefully planned" meaning . . . college would be specifically designed to eliminate these potential college students as fast as they arrived on the campus!

PICTURES BY BOB CLARKE



Gym Locker Room (16) is terminal point for Wind Tunnel (17). causing bad cold-and-pneumonia drafts. The School of Mines' practice-shaft (18) tunnels under College Stadium (19). Power Plant (20) stands beside Outdoor Pool (21), offers shocking displays. R. O. T. C. Parade Grounds (22) run between Outdoor Pool and Alf's Cliffs (23). Baseball Diamond (24) is placed so that a need for outfielders is continuous. Library (25) is fiendishly located between Music Hall (26) and Newspaper Printing Press Hall (27). Parking Space for expected 450 cars is met by 10 car lot (28), which has 6 entrances and only 1 exit. Chem Lab (29) shares kitchen (30) of Cafeteria (31) which overlooks windows of Anatomy Dissection Lab (32). Outdoor Running Track (33) crosses the State Thruway. Art Hall and Psychology Hall are housed in same quarters (34) so the Art Majors and Psych Majors can drive each other nuts. Biology Hall (35) leads out to Lover's Lane (36). Men's Dorm (37) and Women's Dorm (38) are so close together that most students end up semester either at Army Recruiting Station (39) or at The Justice of the Peace (40).



BELLY LAUGHS DEPT.

Most people believe that the normal stomach looks something like the one pictured at the left. However, according to a recent medical report by Basil Wolverton, M.D. (MAD Doodler), this is not true! Actually, the shape of the stomach is determined by the personality of its owner, and everybody's stomach looks different. As proof, MAD reproduces these sketches of famous stomachs made by Dr. Wolverton for his revolutionary

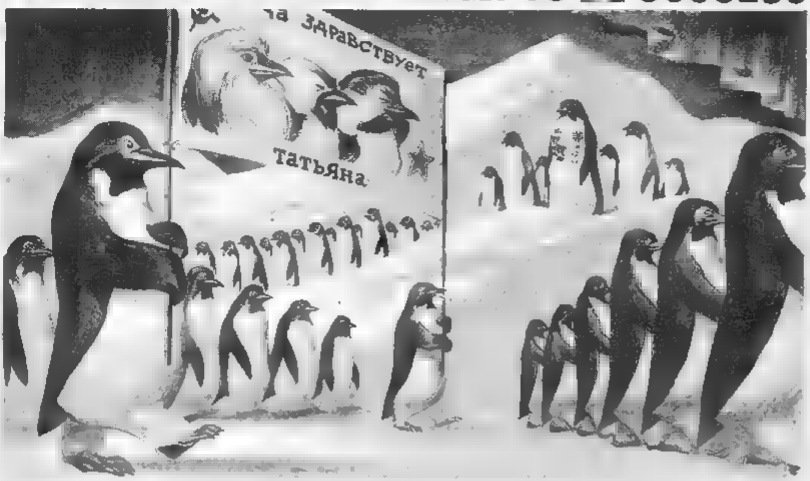
ANTARCTIC MAY DAY RALLY TO BE SUCCESS



Members of Communist Party in Antarctica (shown here in dress-rehearsal) will perform spontaneous demonstration of equality by wearing identical uniforms in annual May Day Parade. Rally will be followed by annual May Day Banquet, where Party comrades will hear speakers demand off-shore fishing rights and full representation in the United Nations.

UNSAVORY AMERICANS

(No. 7 in a series)

Our Unsavory American for today is Alfred E. Neuman, reactionary Wall Street manipulator, who is responsible for deceiving millions of unsuspecting U.S. readers.

Neuman is the "brains" behind one of America's most insidious publications, which cunningly distracts its exploited readers from the misery and deprivation around them by filling their minds with propaganda-filled nonsense under the guise of humor.

As corrupt Press-Lord of the monopolized publishing industry in the United States, Neuman greedily lines his pockets with the earnings of downtrodden laborers and the meager allowances of teen-agers under the pretense of entertaining them. Proof of his callous indifference to this foul deception of the U.S. reading public was demonstrated recently. When confronted with a direct accusation from our reporter, Neuman smiled wickedly and sneered, "What, me worry?"

RASKOLINOVSKI GETS 30 YEARS

Maxim Raskolinovski today was branded as a traitor to the working class and sentenced to 30 years in a labor camp in Siberia. He was found guilty of treason, espionage, deviation, and buying a subscription to "Fortune."

In passing sentence, the People's Court of the Supreme Soviet named Raskolinovski responsible for the Moscow Bomb-Scare of 1934, the failure of the Five-Year-Plan of 1935-40, and the Khartov Purge of 1941.

In addition, Raskolinovski was convicted of being a secret spy for the Beria faction, a sympathizer of warmongering pro-Western causes, and anti-Vodka.

The People's Court delayed imprisonment for six weeks in order to give Raskolinovski, age 6, time to finish his first year class in Marxism at Moscow Public School No. 4.

U. S. BOY SCOUTS VICTIMIZE YOUTH

A PRAVDA survey reveals that an organization called the Boy Scouts is turning American youngsters into hostile, war-mongering imperialists.

Every boy who is forced to join the Boy Scouts is trained to be a master of all forms of espionage, violence and germ warfare. He quickly becomes a dangerous tool of the ruthless U.S. Government.

At the age of eight or nine, innocent American boys are forcibly herded into an organization known as the Cub Scouts, which prepares them for future foul deeds. The Cub Scout Dictators force the youths to worship the wolf, one of the most vicious and uncivilized of predatory animals.

After three years of servitude in the Cub Scouts, the boys, now holligan adolescents, are forced to join the older, more corrupt Boy Scouts. Here, they are snatched from their families and taken to primitive forests where they must live in unheated tents.

The most deceitful ritual is the shameful "Court of Honor," where the young war-mongers are decorated with so-called "Merit Badges." It is here that they receive awards for their work in such insidious fields as "Swimming" (Underwater Demolition and Sabotage), "Chemistry" (Germ and Poison Gas Warfare), "Pathfinding" (Counter-Espionage), and "Pioneering" (Exploitation of Undeveloped Nations).

KHONYAK HURLS TOP ACCUSATION

The fifth day of the annual Moscow Indoor Track and Field Games ended yesterday with Comrade Insky (Lungs) Khonyak capturing the bitterly-contested championship for Accusation Hurling. Without the aid of a microphone, Comrade Khonyak hurled ■ six-word accusation ("The West is full of Imperialists!") 516 feet to establish ■ new all-USSR record.

Second place went to Comrade Stepan Kiosks, who hurled a five-word accusation ("Wall Street's Dominated by Bankers!") 495 feet.

The highly favored hurler, Igor Bivorsky, had to bow out of the competition when he suddenly lost his power of speech in the middle of his seven-word accusation ("They won't let me out of Russia!")

In the Women's Events, Yetta Samovar captured the Banner Waving crown by wig-wagging ■ 12-foot red flag for 17 hours with one arm.

Here is today's schedule:

1 p.m. . . . Sabre Rattling
2 p.m. . Traitor Branding
4 p.m. . . . Issue Clouding
5 p.m. . . . Veto Shouting

In their efforts to completely control American youth, the Scout czars have also set up a sister-organization called the Girl Scouts. This ill-conceived group turns young girls into unpaid door-to-door cookie vendors. The proceeds of these sales, of course, go directly to the Wall Street masterminds of the entire plot.

KHRUSHCHEV RETIRES, BREAKING UP PARTY

Party Boss Nikita Khrushchev retired last night after spending only two hours at ■ Kremlin party honoring the Third Anniversary of the Recovery of his Prized Pair of Gold Cufflinks. Comrade Khrushchev's decision to get an extra two hours' sleep by going to bed at 10 P.M. caused the party to break up much earlier than had been expected.

Earlier in the day, the Party Boss delivered the second of his series of Exchange Speeches, offering eternal Soviet friendship in exchange for occupation of the Eastern half of the United States. Typical imperialistic, anti-humanitarian reactions to speech from the U.S. are expected momentarily.

Also in his speech, Comrade Khrushchev again violently attacked the new USSR vodka tax which was recently put into effect.

"This measure," he protested, 'was passed by the Kremlin while I was absent checking on local stills to see if they had reached their quotas! Heads will roll for this counter-revolutionary outrage!

PARIS COPIES SOVIET FASHIONS

Vladimir Pinsk (left), noted Moscow designer, displays the newest selections of 1958 women's fashions. At the same time, he blasted Paris for taking credit for the sack dress. "Russian women," he said, "have been wearing the sack dress since 1920!"

PRAVDA NAMES NEW EDITOR

Pravda is pleased to announce that Comrade Boris Trepak has been named new Editor. Comrade Trepak replaces the late Comrade Vladimir Grovno who resigned suddenly last week after an error in editorial judgment.

Ex-Comrade Grovno's error unfortunately allowed a photograph of Premier Bulganin to be erroneously captioned "The Leningrad Gas Works."

A special detachment of Polit Bureau officials called on Comrade Grovno at 5 A.M. yesterday to notify him of his error.

The new Editor is a nephew of Premier Bulganin. This is his first job.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

Comrade Lovelorn Editor,

My sweetheart, Mischa, is completing the sixth year of a five-year plan on a collective farm. Until now, he has used me to pull his plow. But yesterday, he told me that as soon as the five-year plan was over, he was going to replace me with a tractor. Should I be insulted?

Laika

Comrade Laika,

From the tone of your letter, it appears that you are highly critical of the Soviet Collective Farm policy. I am forwarding your letter to your local Commissar who, I am sure, will take the proper steps toward having you re-indoctrinated. In the meantime, I suggest you read Pamphlet V445, "Togetherness on a Collective Farm."

Comrade Lovelorn Editor,

I am in love with my factory overseer. Every week, I work hard so I will go over my quota and rank at the top of my section. But he doesn't even give me a tumble. How can I make him notice me?

Blintza

Comrade Blintza,

Try removing your welder's mask.

Comrade Lovelorn Editor,

Recently I attended [redacted] function at the Kremlin where I was introduced to the Commissar of Culture. First, he poured me [redacted] glass of vodka. Then, he danced with me. Finally, he took me into a quiet corner and promised that if I were a good girl he could get my picture on a propaganda poster. What do you think he really has on his mind?

TV REVIEWS

FRONTIER COMRADE (Eastern)

"Frontier Comrade," the latest Soviet TV "Eastern," ranks as the best so far. Filled with suspense, action, and gunfights, the premier show told the dramatic story of Petrov Earpski, who made a one-man stand against the corrupt Czarist land-owners of the 19th century.

The exciting climax of last night's installment came when Petrov Earpski faced 45 evil tax-collectors alone, and shot every one of them down.

Ivan Yotsk was excellent in the title role of a man who hated violence.

THIS WAS YOUR LIFE (Trial)

The State TV industry is to be congratulated for bringing this new public service program into the homes of Soviet citizens. The show, shot live in the Court of the Supreme Soviet, followed the treason trial of Fyodor Murmsk from beginning to end.

No contrived script could ever hope to attain the realism of the live drama witnessed by the television camera when Murmsk arose during the trial to protest his innocence, and the Judges ordered him shot where he stood for Contempt of Court.

High-quality presentations such as this one will surely serve as both an entertaining and an educational diversion for the entire family. The program was sponsored by the Kremlin, and the subliminal spot commercials were effective and to the point.

COMMISSAR FOR A DAY (Drama)

Here is a program which allows one woman each day to serve as a real Commissar for twenty-four hours. Yesterday's lucky lady, Mrs. Vladimir Grunsk, chose to be Commissar of Aggression. Mrs. Grunsk spent a busy day. First, she declared war on Nova Scotia. Then, she re-partitioned Rumania. And finally, she had her husband, Lance, (whom she despises), deported to a Siberian Labor Camp. All in all, it was a happy and memorable experience for Mrs. Grunsk.

Without a doubt, "Commissar for a Day" is a worthwhile television offering, since it affords Soviet citizens a fine opportunity to take part in Public Affairs and maybe start World War III.

Today's Question:

What do you like best about your new job?

Location: Various places around the USSR

V. Molotov, Diplomat:

Frankly, it's a real switch serving as Ambassador to Outer Mongolia! Especially after having been Foreign Minister for so long! Now, don't get me wrong! I like it! The Outer Mongolians aren't much for parties or receptions, but they do make a man feel right at home! And when I look out of my window and see the surrounding 600,000 square miles of unobstructed desert, I feel certain that I have gone just about as far as I can go!

G. Malenkov, Power-Plant Supervisor:

Running a 500-Volt Electric Power Project here in Kazikazatstan is great fun! When I was Premier, I had to sit cooped up behind a desk all the time! Now, I can get outside in the open air and work with my hands nearly 18 hours a day! And the hours (5 a.m. to 11 p.m.) have done wonders for my figure. I'm down to a healthy 97 pounds! Days go by fast and I'll be happy if I can spend the rest of my life here, which I probably will!

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUIZ

1. Khrushchev!
2. No, Khrushchev!
3. Bulganin and Khrushchev!
4. False! It's Khrushchev!
5. That is from the Feb. 10th speech, "Peace in Our Time, or We Wipe Them Out!" by Khrushchev
6. (Khrushchev) is correct!
7. His first name is Nikita!
8. Khrushchev!

KEY TO THE CITY DEPT.

Hey, gang! How many times have you sent for information from the Chamber of Commerce of a particular town you were considering moving to, and got back an illustrated folder something like this... one that never quite tells you the whole story about what the city is actually like?

HOW T

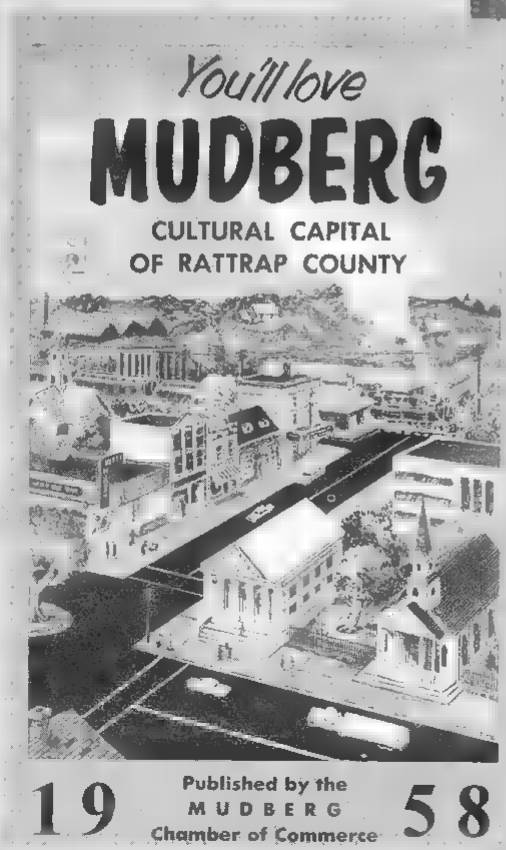
A Chamber Of C

Watch out for floods in rainy season!

Continuous clashes between wild youth and old out-dated town regulations!

There's an acute housing shortage!

The air is constantly smoky and foul smelling



Situated on the banks of the beautiful Veeble River, Mudberg boasts of modern living combined with an old-fashioned flavor.

As one of the fastest growing cities in the state, its industry is expanding in leaps and bounds.

Yes, progress is the word that best describes Mudberg!

There's plenty of room for your car on beautiful Wyokit Bridge.

Don't be fooled! This is not really Mudberg! This is a picture of the model railroad pike in the window of the Mudberg Gift and Hobby Shop!

Sparse traffic result of bridge-boycott by furious Mudbergians protesting outrageous $3.60 toll!

Once again, MAD fearlessly presents another in its long series of public service articles, designed to make your living more comfortable, your experiences more enriching, and mainly so you shouldn't get conned. Here, then, is a detailed analysis with comments which ought to teach you

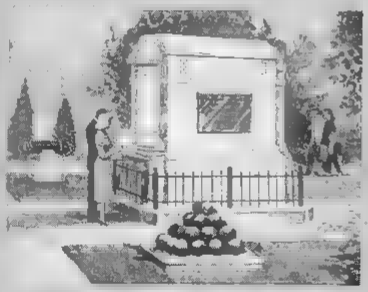
Site is where Benedict Arnold was paid off! Others include the store where John Wilkes Booth bought his gun!

Beside the parking problem, there is a four hour wait for pool facilities!

Just bring plenty money!

Providing you stay just where you are!

Historical monuments and points of interest are part of Mudberg's proud and inspirational heritage.



Nothing escapes the Planning Commission's eye for improvement. The proposed City Auditorium will be one of the finest in the state, with a seating capacity of 5000.

To keep pace with the progress going on within its city limits, Mudberg is busy with a modern up-to-date re-zoning program which will provide greater convenience and opportunity for all.

But all work and no play is NOT the motto for Mudberg. Its huge "Playland," complete with a beautiful outdoor pool, attracts visitors from miles around.

And above all, Mudberg will open its arms in warm friendship, inviting you to become part of us! Yes, you'll LOVE Mudberg!

Beautiful sunsets like this one are so common to our western sky.

Mismanagement and superfluous spending have doubled taxes in last two years!

Beware of words like "proposed" and "future!" Means cheap City Council has yet to approve! If plan ever does get under way, figure on substantially less than the folder promises!

The State Throughway is coming down Main St.!

Except when they explode the A-bombs at the Army Proving Grounds, just twenty-three miles away!

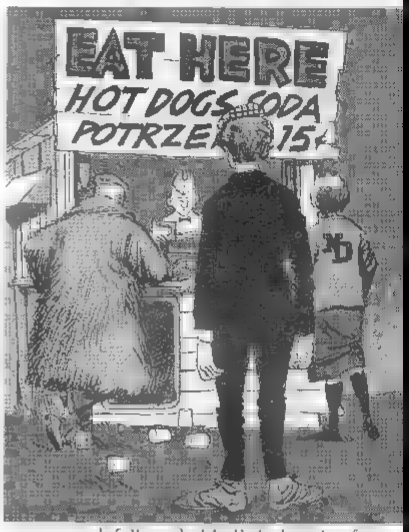
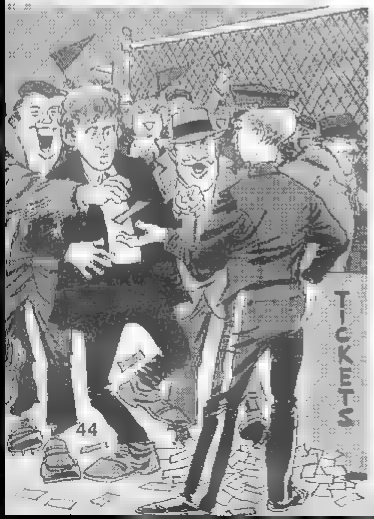
It was back last October, I believe it was. We was a-goin' t' hold a tent service in this college town. And we got thar about dinnertime on Saturday.

And different ones of us thought that we ought to get us a mouthful to eat before that we set up the tent. And so, we got down off of the truck . . .



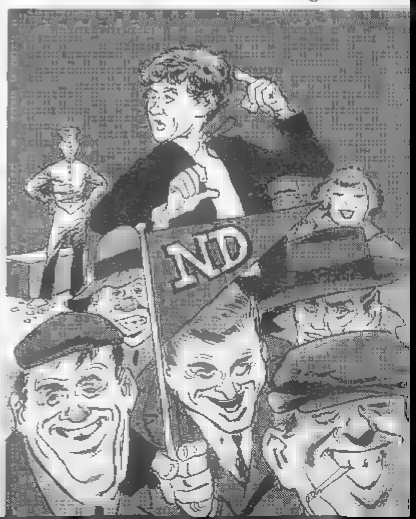
. . . and followed this little bunch of people through this small patch of woods. And we come up on a big sign, says, "Get somethin' t' eat chyere!"

And I looked up over one of 'em, and it says "North Gate." And we kept on a-goin', and purty soon we come up on a boy, and he says, "Ticket, please!"



And I says, "Friend, I don't have a ticket! I don't even know where it is that I'm a-goin'!" . . . I did!

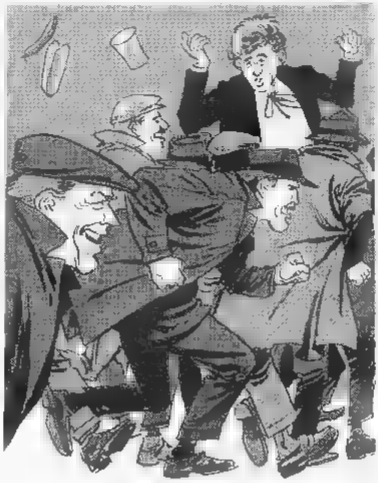
Well, he says, "Come out as quick as y'can!" And I says, "I'll do 'er! I'll turn aroun' the first chance I get!"



WHAT IT WAS, WAS FOOTBALL!

"PARADISE LOST by Joe Di Maggio

And I went up and got me two hot dogs and a big orange drink. And before I could take a-ry mouthful of that food, this whole raft of people come up . . .



And they got me t' where I couldn't eat nothin' up-like, and I dropped my big orange drink! . . . I did!

Well, friends, they commence to move, and thar warn't so much that I could do but move with 'em . . . through all kinds o' doors an' gates an' what-all!

Well, we kep' on a-movin' through thar, and soon everybody got where they was a-goin', because they parted, and I could see pretty good! . . . I could!

And what I seen was this whole raft o' people a-settin' on these two banks, and a-lookin' at one-another across this pretty little green cow pasture.

Well, they was! And somebody had took and drawed white lines all over it, and drove posts in it, and I don't know what-all! . . . They had!

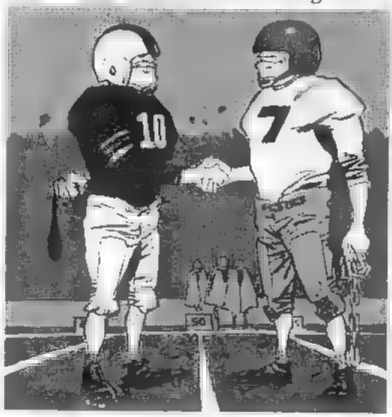
And I looked down thar, and I seen 5 or 6 convicts a-runnin' up and down, and a-blowin' whistles! ... They was!

And I seen these purty girls a-wearin' these little-bitty short dresses, and a-dancin' around. So I sat down t'see what was a-goin' t' happen! ... I did!

About the time I got sat down good, I looked down and I seen 30 or 40 men come a-runnin' out one end of a great big outhouse down there! ... They did!

And when I sat back down, I seen that them men had got in two little-bitty bunches down thar! ... They had! Real close! And they voted! ... They did!

They elected one man apiece, and them two men come out in the middle of that cow pasture and shook hands like they hadn't seen one-another in a long time.



And then a convict come over to where the two of 'em was a-standin', and he took out a quarter, and they commence to "odd-man" right thar! ... They did!

And, friends, I seen that evenin' the awfulest fight that I have ever seen in my life! They'd run at one-another, an' kick one-another, an' th'ow one-another down, an' stomp on one-another, an' grind their feet in one-another, an' I don't know what-all! And just as fast as one of 'em 'd get hurt, they'd tote him off and run another one on ...

And everybody where I was a-settin they got up and hollered. And about that time, 30 or 40 come a-runnin' out the other end of that outhouse.

And the other bankful, they got up and hollered. And I asked this feller that was a-settin' beside me, "Friend, what is it that they're a-hollerin' for?"

Well, he whup me on the back, an' he says, "Buddy, have a drink! Well," I says, "I believe I will have another big orange!" And I got it! . . . I did!

And then I seen what it was they was odd-manin' for! It was that both them bunchesful of men wanted this funny-lookin' little punkin' to play with!

They did! And I know they couldn't-a eat it, friends, 'cause they kicked it the whole evenin', and it never busted!

Anyway, what I was a-tellin' was both bunchesful wanted that thing, and one bunch got it! And it made the other bunch just as mad as they could be!

Well, they done that as long as I set thar. But pretty soon this boy that had said "Ticket, Please!", he come up to me, an' he says, "Friend, you're gonna have t' leave because it is that you don't have a ticket!" An' I says, "Well, all right!" And I got up and left! . . . I did!
